

McLaren Massacre T Shirt

The Trust is producing limited edition T shirts and this is the first release. Produced in 1998 and featuring the magnificent M8 sports cars of Bruce McLaren and Denny Hulme, this shirt commemorates the magnificent wins in the Can-Am Championship. Printed front and rear on a white T shirt.

Due to its popularity this T shirt is now only available in XL, XXL and single side front print in SML and child's sizes 8yr, 10yr and 12yr old.

Speedy Kiwi Logo

Bruce & Denny were extremely proud of their Kiwi heritage and the Speedy Kiwi logo first appeared in the early 70's. This is one of the Trust's official logos and it is available on polo shirts, denim shirts, Ruffino sweatshirts with collar, cloth sew on badges and black wool mix caps.

Can-Am Logo

Designed to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Can-Am Championship wins. Team McLaren with drivers Bruce McLaren and Denny Hulme were winners of the Championship for 5 consecutive years 1968 - 1972. This popular logo is available on polo shirts, denim shirts, Ruffino sweatshirts with collar, cloth sew on badges and black wool mix caps.

Bruce McLaren Shield

The original Bruce McLaren Motor Racing team logo. Designed by English artist Michael Turner in 1963 and recognised worldwide. This is also the official logo for the Bruce McLaren Trust and the wording on this logo when reproduced on the shirts reads Bruce Bruce McLaren Trust. A new release and only available at present on black polos and denim shirts.

McLaren M8A Logo

This new logo has been created to coincide with the restoration of the McLaren M8A. The 1968 McLaren M8A was one of the most successful Can-Am sports cars and won the 1968 Championship. Logo is in black & white and available at present only on an orange polo. Coloured version to be produced early 2000.
