ONLY 150 BRUCE MCLAREN FANS CAN OWN THIS PIECE OF NZ MOTOR RACING HISTORY

Craig Primrose is one of the official artists to the Bruce McLaren Trust and was commissioned to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Bruce McLaren's first motorsport event, a hill climb in the Austin Ulster at Muriwai in April 1953 - in essence the beginning of Bruce's motor sport career.

The print features some of the cars driven by Bruce McLaren and depicts some of the highlights of his racing career. Like his win at Monaco in 1962, his first win in a McLaren F1 car at Spa and his first race against international drivers at Ardmore in 1957.
